2017 ACC CHAMPIONSHIP

Wake Forest, which played 67 minutes down a man, topped Virginia 4-3 in penalty kicks after a 0-0 draw to claim the 2017 ACC Men's Soccer Championship.

The Demon Deacons (17-1-2) were led by Championship Most Valuable Player Andreu Cases Mundet, who made two saves in the game and one in penalty kicks to post his league-leading 10th shutout of the season.

The title is the second straight for top-seeded Wake Forest and the third overall. The Demon Deacons also won their first ACC Championship in 1989 in penalty kicks.

Wake Forest defender Logan Gdula was sent off after picking up a yellow card in the fifth minute and then a second in the 43rd minute, giving Virginia the man advantage for the remainder of the game. It marked the first red card in an ACC title game since 2010, when North Carolina's Michael Farfan received one.

After going down a man just before halftime, the Demon Deacons outshot the Cavaliers 8-3.

Caldwell made three saves and stopped two penalty kicks for his sixth shutout of the season.

The game marked the fourth time in history that the title game of the ACC Men's Soccer Championship has gone to penalty kicks and first since 2005.
